Independent Accreditation in Learning

What is CPD?

CPD is a universal term used within the training and learning sector, CPD stands for Continuous Professional Development.

CPD activities are designed to support individuals to develop knowledge, enhance skills and ensure working practices are kept up to date.

Many sectors, organisations and professions have a requirement for people to complete structured CPD.

Different types of learning activities can count towards CPD such as: Instructor lead training, E-learning, seminars, workshops, plus many more.

Advantage Accreditation is an independent accreditation body that can help support you gain CPD accreditation for your training courses.

Why Get CPD Accredited

By gaining CPD accreditation through Advantage, it shows that you're committed to high quality, externally verified training that is aligned to industry standards. This can set you apart from competitors and increase your credibility.

The accreditation process ensures your training courses, systems and policies meet robust quality standards to ensure the training has an impact for all your learners.

Once accredited, you can advertise your training with the CPD kitemark on marketing materials, training resources and certificates.
