

CPD Accreditation Advantage Accreditation

Advantage Accreditation is an independent accreditation body. We specialise in assisting individuals and organisations in obtaining CPD (Continuous Professional Development) accreditation for their training courses.

CPD is crucial for skill and knowledge development and ensuring adherence to industry standards. It encompasses various learning methods such as instructor-led training, elearning, seminars, and workshops.

-  Demonstrate your commitment to high-quality, externally verified training aligned with industry standards.
-  Access valuable feedback to improve the quality of your training in line with our robust standards.
-  Provide learners with dual-branded certificates and CPD hours or points.
-  Receive ongoing support from our account managers and curriculum team.

Accreditation Process

Creating accredited in-house CPD courses can be cost-effective and tailored to company needs. Please get in touch for more information on how to create customised CPD courses for your organisation. We offer CPD accreditation tailored to various industries and sectors, such as:
