

Train the Trainer Advantage Accreditation

Advantage Accreditation offers accredited Train the Trainer courses for experienced team members to become licensed trainers in specific subjects.

These courses enable trainers to deliver in-house training and assess learners according to quality standards and assessments.

Please note, in order to access Advantage Accreditation learning materials, you will need to become an accredited centre in addition to completing Train the Trainer.

-  Access customised programmes to match your organisation's requirements.
-  Deliver consistent high-quality training that adheres to Advantage's standards.
-  Boost employee engagement and sense of responsibility.
-  Enhance staff competence, performance, innovation and problem-solving capabilities.
